

WWR says he sent "everything" to P

P was informed specifically about prospect for "jail uprising" & anticipated some such effort.
(After offering he showed P specific products warning of uprisings)

However - he was not entirely prepared for
- "intensity"
- "widespreadness" } of Tat more
- (or exact timing)
                        } probably

Mr. J. Patrick Coyne
President's Foreign Intelligence
Advisory Board
Room 297
Executive Office Building

Dear Pat:

In accordance with your request, I am sending herewith a second copy of the book on "Intelligence Warning of the Tet Offensive in South Vietnam," one copy of which was sent to you earlier.

The reason some of the pages in the first copy were difficult to read is because they were copied from microfilms and other similar material. The illegible pages have been recopied or retyped and this version should be all right.

Because of the difficulty of reproducing this, we would very much appreciate having one or both copies back as soon as the Board has completed its study of it.

Also attached are two copies of the notes from which Mr. Smith briefed the Board on 11 April.

Sincerely,
